

Peter C. Weiglin

May 2, 1938 – March 31, 2023

Peter C. Weiglin, a resident of Amelia, Ohio, passed away on March 31, 2023, at Mercy Hospital - Anderson Township at the age of 84. He was born in New York City on May 2, 1938, to the late Catherine and Hans Weiglin.

Peter was the devoted and loving husband of Jeanne T. Weiglin (nee Tilson) for almost 60 years, having met when Peter was a 1st Lieutenant at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Jeanne's father was a Full Colonel at Ft. Sill and Peter used to say that he was the Lieutenant who married the Colonel's daughter and then got out of the army. He was the beloved father of Dawn Weiglin Chew (Thomas) and Glenn Weiglin (Joni), cherished grandfather of Tonya Kramer (Keith), Christie Hlavaty, Kendra Weiglin and Madelyn Weiglin and great-grandfather of Samantha and Carsten Kramer.

Peter earned a B.S. in Economics and Business from Fordham University and his M.B.A. in Marketing/Regulated Industries from the University of Pittsburgh, where he won the Robinson Prize (top prize in class). He attended Columbia Law School for two years, before being interrupted by military service. From 2005-Present, Peter was the Editor/Publisher of Trolley Talk magazine; 1985-2005: President of Omnibus Communications in San Mateo, CA; 1987-2005: Marketing Instructor at University of California; 1982-1984: Editor and Publisher of Apple Orchard magazine in Cupertino, CA; 1980-1981: Program Manager, Transit Operations for Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Quade & Douglas, Inc. in San Francisco, CA; 1971-1979: Associate and Vice President with ATE Management & Service Co. Inc., Cincinnati, OH. He was general manager, Sun Tran, Tucson, Arizona, 1978-1979, Deputy General Manager, Queen City Metro, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Director of Marketing for Denver Metro Transit.

Peter was a member of the Rotary Club of Batavia, OH, President 2009-2010, Governor of Rotary District 6670, 2012-2013, Exalted Ruler, San Mateo, California Elks Lodge. He was a Lay Leader of Faith United Methodist Church, Batavia, OH and a Certified Lay Speaker at United Methodist Church. He was a Board member and Production Vice-President of Mariemont Players, Inc. and a Member of Clermont County Chamber of Commerce – Agenda 360 committee. Peter authored 6 books over his career, as well as numerous magazine articles.

Peter also had a career as a radio and TV producer, writer, and on-air presence, professionally and in community theatre. He served as Director of Promotion for WTAE Radio/TV, Pittsburgh, PA and as Manager for National Broadcasting Company, Pittsburgh. In years past, he directed and/or produced several assorted revues and several one-act plays for the stage. In addition to community theatre, Peter enjoyed a passion for railroads and model railroading. He built seven model railroads in his 60 foot basement. He was a life member of NRMA since he was in high school and served as Superintendent of two divisions; Cincinnati MCR and Coast Division PCR.

A memorial service and reception celebrating Peter's life was held on Saturday, April 29 at Faith United Methodist Church in Batavia, Ohio. Memorial contributions, in Peter's name, may be made to the Rotary Foundation (www.rotary.org/donate) or via check to the Rotary Club of Batavia, PO Box 727, Batavia OH 45103.
